Nyetimber Mill

Nyetimber Mill is an attractive retirement development situated off Paghams Road to the north of the village close to shops. The larger centre of Bognor Regis is less than two miles away.

Location

Paghams was once the fourth wealthiest parish in the Kingdom and a large port and today the bird sanctuary and beaches are well known. Goodwood and the South Downs are just a fifteen minute drive away.

Bognor Regis began life as a Saxon village becoming a fishing centre in the eighteenth century, a fashionable seaside resort in the 19th century finally adding the Regis in the twentieth.

It was very much a family holiday town with long safe beaches in shallow water but is now a bustling resort with many amenities and numerous facilities with miles of sand and shingle beaches.

The town expanded considerably after the 2nd World War and today the nearby villages of Felpham and Aldwick have really been absorbed as residential areas but each with their own distinct centres and shopping areas. In the 1960's Sir Billy Butlin opened one of his holiday camps at Bognor. The Dome House is Bognor's most famous building and other prominent local landmarks include the Royal Norfolk Hotel and Hotham Park.

Further afield

Nyetimber is about a mile and a half from Bognor Regis. Fast trains to London (Victoria) take approximately one hour and fifty minutes from Bognor and from Chichester a little over an hour and a half.
