Justine Court

Justine Court is designed to provide independent living for those people who are looking to move to somewhere more convenient, either closer to shops, smaller accommodation or who spend time away on holiday. There is a resident scheme manager, appointed by Grange Management, to look after the day-to-day management of the development and to be on hand for advice and emergencies.

Location

Bitterne has a good range of shops and amenities with the Bitterne Shopping Centre only a short walk away and closer still a modern leisure centre with swimming pool. The library is also close by as is the Bitterne Health Centre. There is a railway station at Bitterne Manor and a regular bus service from Southampton to Portsmouth and frequent services to Southampton City Centre.

An important trading town in northern Europe as early as the 17th century, Southampton has a rich heritage. Its deep water port ensured its place in Maritime history. Henry V assembled his army here before invading France and the Pilgrim Fathers set sail for America in the 17th century. The Maritime museum is housed in a 14th Century warehouse

Further afield

Within easy driving distance is Hedge End where there is a Sainsbury's and a Marks and Spencers. Southampton is a thriving city with many beautiful parks and gardens, flourishing theatre, excellent shops and numerous places of interest to visit. Today there are several museums in the city and many fine buildings. There are regular ferries to The Isle of Wight.
