Location

Bournemouth is a famous seaside resort with wide avenues of elegant villas, gardens and parks set amongst the pine trees leading down to the sea. Well known for its mild climate the town offers the best of all worlds: an historic sea port in Poole to the west; a fine medieval priory in Christchurch to the east; seven miles of award winning, safe beaches; an internationally renowned orchestra plus superb shopping and leisure facilities.

The town still has an air of Victorian charm but at the same time a thriving commercial centre and a host of national stores. The Bournemouth International Centre has exhibitions and conferences and there are art galleries and many museums in the town including one devoted to Shelley. The Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra has an excellent reputation.

Further afield

Bournemouth is well situated for the road and rail network in the south of England with the A31 passing to the north of the town and the A35 connecting with Dorchester about 30 miles to the west.

European destinations are ever closer with the continental ferry terminal at Poole and Bournemouth International Airport which offers direct flights amongst others to Spain, Cyprus, Portugal and Ireland. Fast trains to London (Waterloo) take about two hours.
